Purchase Curriculum Tax Exempt and at a Discount!

HSFSA has partnered with Logos Book Store to offer our clients the ability to purchase curriculum Tax Exempt and with a Bulk Discount.

Nashville, TN, 05/04/05 – “Home School Financial Services Associates, Inc. has partnered with Logos Book Store to provide our clients with the opportunity to make bulk discount purchases on curriculum ordered through our client support groups,” announced Michael E. Yates, President of HSFSA. Yates continued, “Any bulk purchases of $250 or more that our clients make through their home school group will provide savings of sales taxes (9.25 %) and a bulk purchase discount. The bulk purchase discount is generally between 5% to 15 % off of the retail price, which could provide your group a total savings between 14.25% and 24.25% of the total purchase price. The bulk purchase must be made using your group’s Sales Tax Exemption Certificate and paid with a support group check.”

HSFSA clients can request a catalogue from John Thornton or from Logos Book Store. Logos Book Store is owned and operated by Ken Najar, a home school father, and is located at 4012 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, 37215. For items not found in the catalogue please call Logos at 615-297-5388 for availability. Logos Book Store can generally provide you with any books, curriculum, tapes, CD’s, etc. that would be needed in your home school group whether in their catalogue or not. If your group is not a client of HSFSA please call John for details or visit the web site at www.hsfsa.com.

Once completed, your order form should be sent to John Thornton, HSFSA’s Director of Client Development and Public Relations. John will be working directly with Logos Book Store to have your order processed. John will inform you of your bulk purchase discount and the total price of your order. You can reach him at johnthornton@hsfsa.com or 615-347-8470.
